

HOLD ILLINOIS PRIMARY LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

SEN. WILLIS EASY WINNER IN PRIMARY

Pomerene Also Leads—Other Results In Elections

BULLETIN
Columbus, O., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Florence E. Allen, state supreme court justice today conceded the democratic nomination for U. S. Senator to former Senator Atlee Pomerene, her opponent in the primary held yesterday.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The battle of ballots waged today in the states of Ohio, Alabama, Arkansas and Nebraska, the aftermath of yesterday's primary elections.

Pomerene Leads
Miss Florence Allen, state supreme court justice and first Ohio woman to seek a senatorial seat, was lagging behind former Senator Pomerene for the democratic nomination for United States Senator. Senator F. B. Willis showed his heels to his seven opponents and his nomination for the republican senatorship was assured.

After leading through almost half the count, Thad Brown, secretary of state, seeking the republican gubernatorial nomination, lost ground and M. Y. Cooper, Cincinnati real estate man forged into first position among the 12 persons including a woman and a negro who sought the honor. Brown and Cooper were regarded as the only contenders.

O. K. Third Term
Governor A. V. Donahay walked away from three democratic opponents who sought to succeed him. Donahay is seeking a third consecutive term.

Returns from 2399 precincts of 8634 gave Pomerene 25,206 and Miss Allen 16,529. Senator Willis had 40,388 in 1927 precincts and his nearest opponent, C. Q. Hildebrandt, 10,976. Donahay had a lead of 35,000 over his nearest opponent in 2459 precincts. His vote was 40,333.

Ignore National Klan
Reputation of the national Ku Klux Klan organization by the Alabama organization was seen by some observers in Alabama's democratic primary.

Hugo L. Black, candidate for the U. S. Senate, endorsed by the Alabama Klan, was leading a field of five including L. B. Mosgrove, backed by the national organization. Black had 9408 in 386 precincts of 1800 in the state; Bankhead 5508; Kilby 4332; Mayfield 3445 and Musgrove 2572.

In the gubernatorial race Bibb Graves, a few days ago charged that large Alabama newspapers were fighting him to "hurtle the Alabama delegation" in the 1928 national democratic convention to give the state's vote to Governor Al Smith, was leading a field of 4. The vote in 386 precincts was Graves 9905; McDowell 8468; Patterson 6941; Carmichael 6875.

Large urban centers gave John E. Martineau, judge of Pulaski Chancery Court, a fairly substantial lead over Governor Tom J. Terral in Arkansas' democratic gubernatorial fight. Governor Terral's strength is believed to lie in the rural districts and as returns from them began to filter in he began cutting into Martineau's lead. The vote in 641 precincts of 2009 in the state was Martineau 27,824; Terral 20,027.

In the congressional battles the incumbents, Representative J. N. Tillman and Heartell Ragon were leading their opponents. Senator T. H. Caraway was nominated without opposition.

Nebraska republicans nominated Gov. Adam McMillen to succeed himself. His two opponents, F. G. Johnson, Hastings, former attorney general and Robert Ross, Lexington farmer, lagged far behind. Returns from 455 precincts out of 1968 gave McMillen 30,722; Johnson 9253; Ross 2875.

Bryan Unopposed
Charles Bryan, former governor and democratic vice presidential candidate in 1924 was unopposed for the democratic gubernatorial nomination as were Osmond F. Byron, Pender attorney, La Follette-independent candidate and Roy M. Harrop, Omaha progressive.

AMBOY FARMER DROPS DEAD AT WORK NEAR HERE

Herman Rettke, Age 61, Expires Suddenly Yesterday

Herman Rettke, aged 61, retired Amboy township farmer, dropped dead suddenly about 3:45 yesterday afternoon, while engaged in wrecking an old corn crib on the Fred Odenthal farm, three miles east of Dixon on the Lincoln Highway. Mr. Rettke was working with George Mossholder and Trop Rinehart at the time and had just talked with the former. He sank to the ground and expired shortly after.

Coroner Frank M. Banker of Franklin Grove conducted an inquest at the Preston mortuary this morning at 10 o'clock, the jury returning a verdict of death due to chronic myocarditis.

Mr. Rettke was 61 years of age and had retired from active farming in Amboy township last spring, moving to Eldena where he had resided. Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Miss Anna Rettke of this city and three sons, Frank of Walnut Otto of Amboy and Herman of Ashton. Funeral services will be conducted from the Preston chapel tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 and from the German Lutheran church at 2 o'clock, Rev. G. H. Suchting officiating and with interment in Oakwood.

HATED GANG CHIEF IS "BUMPED OFF" IN CHICAGO GANG WAR

"Big" Smith, Imported Gunman Is Latest Victim

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Louis "Big" Smith, known as a gun man imported from New York two years ago as the bodyguard of a Chicago bootlegger, was shot and killed last night when gangster fights for the second time in a day threw a business district into uproar.

The 42nd death since January attributed to gang warfare was the work of a gun man who accomplished his purpose where a handful of his fellows had failed in the past, earlier in the day, in a running pistol fight before Michigan Boulevard smart shops.

Smith was dropped while engaged in conversation on a southside street by four accurate bullets fired by a man who drove up in an automobile, emptied his weapon and sped away. The man to whom Smith was talking disappeared.

Outcast in Gangland.
Detectives said Smith virtually was an outcast in gangland because of his cold blooded methods. He had engaged in liquor hijacking, robbery, extortion and paid killing during his brief reign over a gang here, officers said and boasted of the number of men he had "bumped off." He once served at Sing Sing prison for robbery.

TO BROTHER'S FUNERAL.
Mrs. Henry Dixon has been in Chicago the past few days, called there by the death of her brother, Thomas Casey, who was also the brother of the Misses Casey of Oak Park. The funeral of Mr. Casey was held Monday.

SAY THREEE EXECUTED IN CHURCH ROW

News Reports Tell of Rioting and Bloodshed in Mexico

BULLETIN
Rome, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The Vatican organ, the Observatore Romano says in a review of the Mexican situation that "troops were ordered to fire on the crowds" and that "notwithstanding the complement reduction of figures by government newspapers, a hundred victims have fallen before the bullets of fratricidal arms."

Mexico City, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The newspapers here print reports that three citizens were summarily executed after a court martial at Acambaro. They were charged with leading a mob which recently killed two government engineers because they thought the engineers were government agents in the religious situation.

The Catholic Episcopate, in a long statement addressed to the "American People" denies Catholic responsibility for the situation. It cites in detail the restrictions of the religious classes in the constitution and says they make impossible the life of the Catholic Church in Mexico. It also says the church is only seeking to have the constitution amended to secure religious liberty like that in the United States.

Calles Thins Rebels
"President Calles says we are rebels," the statement asserts. "He says Catholics are not persecuted; he says he only wants us to obey the law. It is precisely this effort to force us to comply with laws destroying the life of the church that constitutes persecution."

"We Mexican Catholics will imitate the conduct of French Catholics in the world war who despite the fact that they had been greatly wronged by their government through violation of their rights, were among the first to show their patriotism when the conflict began."

"Battle of Words"
Mexico City, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The controversy between the Mexican government and the Catholic Church over the government's religious regulations showed no signs of lessening today.

The "battle of words" as it is being characterized here, owing to the statements of the Catholic Episcopate regarding its stand and the government's reiteration of its policy, was still in progress, seemingly with prospects at present of anything more dangerous than words being used.

The Catholic authorities who consistently have ordered moderation and no violence, declared today it would not support any revolution. The Episcopate even went further when in a statement to The Associated Press it asserted that in the event Mexico was faced by armed conflict with a foreign power the church and its members would support the Mexican government with absolute loyalty.

Hope throughout the country persists that the new congress in September may modify the religious regulations. But it is said that unless President Calles softens in his attitude, congressional relief is doubtful.

Debates Are Abandoned
The economic boycott called in protest against the government's religious policy continued to be the cause of much apprehension but some relief is expressed over the abandonment of joint debates by government and religious leaders on the religious situation. These debates had been drawing big crowds and the arguments were becoming so warm and the feeling so intense that it was feared serious clashes might develop over the debates were continued.

Neither the Catholic Episcopate, government, nor the newspapers have received any information that priests have been killed anywhere in the state of Michoacan. Mexico City constantly is filled with rumors of all sorts of bloody disasters in various parts of Mexico. Most of these prove completely unfounded.

Banker Killed In Fight With Seven Holdup Men Today

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 10.—(AP)—George Parker, employee of a branch of the First and Fourth National Bank here was killed and Frank Gahler, a fruit dealer was wounded in an exchange of shots with seven men who robbed the branch of approximately $2,000 today and escaped. Police gave chase to the robbers.

Mexican Cathedral Jammed on Last Day of Services

This remarkable photo shows the interior of the Mexico City cathedral as it looked on the last day services were held there. The arrow points to the venerable Archbishop Mora of Mexico, who is surrounded by an impetuous, clamoring mob, including scores of mothers with babies in their arms, all striving to get to his side so that he can perform the rites of confirmation and baptism.

COURT OF HONOR AT BOY SCOUTS' CAMP HELD LAST EVENING

First Period of Camp Ends Last Evening—New Camp On Now

The first period of the Boy Scouts' camp which has been in progress at Camp Black Hawk for the past two weeks closed this morning and the Scouts returned to their homes. With the closing of one session, another period was opened with an enrollment of about a like number as were present the first period.

The last night in camp for the first troops was a memorable one, when all assembled around the camp fire last evening at 8 o'clock and with a large group of interested visitors, participated in the "Court of Honor," which marks the close of each camping trip. The Court of Honor is the report card of the troops and the individual scout, for at these meetings the standings of the various tents is made known and the awards for the work accomplished during the camp period are made.

"Bus" Smith, Dixon's Eagle Scout, was awarded the first decoration, a bronze medal for belt awards with a score of 26. Paul Smith was second with 23 points to his credit and John King, third, with 22.

Much interest was manifested in the announcement of the tent inspection, Winston Smith of tent 2, winning the pennant with a total of 1282 points. In the Scout rally held yesterday, tent 5 was the winner. Dwight Thompson, leader of tent 4, was awarded a pennant.

The council of honor was opened with a stirring song session led by Scout Executive Don Cameron. The council fire was built by Paul and "Bus" Smith. The light from the fire in the heavy woods reflected on the big totem pole built by the boys and created a weird surrounding. Dr. L. R. Evans of this city president of Black Hawk Council, presided at the distribution of decorations and was assisted by Messrs. Tilton, Louis Pitcher, Dr. Price, George Smith and Frank Carney. Each of these presiding at one of the decorations and gave a short talk, encouraging the boys in their Scout work and urging them to continue their efforts with a view of becoming an Eagle Scout.

Corn Making Good Progress in Ill. Says Weather Man

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Showers of varying amounts were received over the state during the past week, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported today. Some areas were missed, the report said, but good rains occurred in parts of the droughty south where corn is recovering nicely.

The progress of corn is excellent where there has been sufficient moisture but it is still behind and varies in advancement. The worst dry area at present is within a radius of sixty miles of St. Louis, and corn in this area is reported as deteriorating.

LAFE NELLIS GETS HEAVY FINE TODAY FOR TRAP FISHING

Brooklyn Township Man Assessed $200 For Violation

G. Lafayette Nellis of Brooklyn township, entered a plea of guilty to an information charging him with illegal fishing in a state fish preserve, Rock river, before Judge William L. Leech in the county court this morning and was assessed the maximum fine of $200 and costs, the court requiring that the defendant be confined in the county jail until the fine and cost were paid.

The case which was instituted by Deputy Fish and Game Warden Fred Kersten of Ashton, brought forth the most severe penalty that has been inflicted in many months in Illinois, on the grounds of illegal fishing. The information contained several counts, chief among which was the operation of fish traps.

Nellis was arrested a month ago on a Sunday morning when the deputy game warden and other officers had watched him raising fish traps in the vicinity of the Grand Detour bridge. The investigation was the result of numerous complaints which had been registered with the state warden and the department of fish and game at Springfield. Three traps were removed from Rock river in the vicinity of the Grand Detour bridge by the officers and taken to the county jail. These were ordered to be destroyed by Judge Leech at the conclusion of the hearing this morning.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Leech strongly criticized the defendant for his violation.

Judge Pans Defendant
"The fish in Rock river, which has been declared a state fish preserve, are there for the sport of fishing, and not for the wholesale slaughter by the use of fish traps," Judge Leech said. "Furthermore, I am surprised that a man of your age and experience as a sportsman would resort to this illegal means of destroying the fish in the river. In pronouncing sentence, I am issuing a warning to you and all others who are within the jurisdiction of this court, that this practice is to be stopped with the assessing of the maximum fine as the first step."

In connection with the heavy fine Nellis is denied the privilege of fishing in Illinois for a period of one year from the date of the sentence. The fish and game laws carrying this provision and adding that no license be issued to him.

William J. Stratton, chief of the department of fish and game, was in Dixon yesterday afternoon, conferring with Deputy Kersten and commended him highly for his activity in ridding the streams of this localilty of violators. He also assured him of the highest cooperation from the department at Springfield in the carrying out of the state fish and game laws.

BIBLE CONFERENCE BRINGS BIG CROWD TO THE ASSEMBLY

Splendid Programs Attract Thousands Daily

(Contributed)
Dr. John Marvin Dean, pastor of one of the greatest churches on the west coast, will speak at the Bible Conference this evening, giving the main address. Dr. Dean has a striking personality and will deliver an inspiring message. He will speak at 7:30.

Monday, the second day of the Dixon Bible Conference was all and more than the Board of Directors thought would be possible for the first year of such a conference. Everywhere folks are heard to exclaim "One of the greatest things that ever came to Dixon." The response for the support of the work is joyous. Many individuals come and ask for subscription cards so as to have a part in making the conference the greatest possible success. The businessmen through the Chamber of Commerce are all boosting and several of them are soliciting their fellow businessmen to make pledge or cash donations so as to cover the entire budget. The air is charged with enthusiasm and before the week is over it is estimated that the Assembly grounds will again experience the crowds that used to come to this popular place. In fact, Dixon should rise in her pride because of these beautiful grounds and most excellent buildings. There is not another place like it in the entire state of Illinois.

The Bible Conference is helping to advertise the values. The registration cards indicate the widespread interest as folks are here from every corner of the state, from Atlanta, Ga., Iowa, Indiana, Nevada, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska Kansas and Missouri. Such an institution for Illinois and located in Dixon means great things for the future.

Monday's Program
To carefully itemize the value of each address delivered Monday would fill the entire front page of this paper. The daily program begins at 8:30 with Dr. Peery giving instruction from the book "The Pupil and the Teacher" and the "earnestness with which it is imparted holds their attention with keen interest. The 9:30 hour with Dr. John Marvin Dean of Pasadena, Calif., is truly fascinating. His vigor, strong personality and fine versatility, with his pleasing presentations gives his auditors a real treat. Dr. Goodell Monday in the same mastery manner of which he is capable stirred the hearts of all and engendered enthusiasm for action. His topic was "The Supreme Task of the Christian Church." The Church had sponsored the beginnings and does yet, of all hospitals and children's homes and other kindred institutions. But its great importance is that it deals in the eternal traffic of the soul. The fine things of the world are worth having, enjoyments are not to be cast aside. But it is better to go on foot with God than ride in luxury with the devil. A fine home is to be desired, but it is better to live in a cottage with faith than a palace of sin. It is sin that undermines the hope of the world, it is faith in God which brings the answer to all difficulties. The Church of God holds the salvation of the world and a cure

BLAST AND FIRE WRECK REFINERY NEAR BALTIMORE

Huge Storage Tanks Still Blazing Today

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Flames still belched fitfully today from seven huge tanks of burning gasoline, kerosene and benzene on the grounds of the American Oil Co. refining plant in South Baltimore. Late yesterday four terrific explosions rocked the neighborhood, death serious injury to seven firemen and sent hundreds of families scurrying from their homes in fear of a general conflagration.

As flames spread to the warehouse of the company loaded with drums of lubricating oil and containing 476 of the firm a huge pall of dense black smoke spread over the section drawing a crowd of 100,000 persons to the spectacle as flames roared hundred of feet into the sky. Company officials estimated that 500,000 gallons of combustibles were destroyed. Because of the intense heat, firemen were unable to penetrate close enough to determine the cause of the fire.

For guests preferring to go by automobile, the Dixon Chamber of Commerce will provide cars for the trip to Grand Detour and Lowell Park.

Robbers Loot Garage On Lincoln Highway

The garage at the home of John Nelson, east of Dixon on the Lincoln Highway, near the Emmert cemetery, was broken into last night and thoroughly ransacked it was reported at the sheriff's office this morning. Chief Deputy Fred Richardson conducted an investigation and found that two tires, five gallons of kerosene, tire chains and tools had been taken. Mr. Nelson is employed as driver of one of the Northern Illinois Service Company's busses and the property stolen belonged to that company.

JUDGES GIVE DECISION IN SUIT TODAY

Edwards, Emerson and Heer in Important Decision

The Illinois primary election law of 1919 is invalid and unconstitutional, Judge William J. Emerson of Oregon, Judge Harry Edwards of this city and Judge Harry L. Heer of Galena, sitting in a body in the Lee county circuit court held this afternoon at 1:30.

Judge William J. Emerson who presided at the June term of the circuit court and heard the arguments in the case which was brought by William J. McAlpine of this city against the board of supervisors, county treasurer and county clerk, handed down the decision. After a brief resume of the bill from the date of its being filed last March, Judge Emerson said:

"When this case was brought to my attention, I considered it of sufficient importance to call in the other two judges of this circuit. The defendants demurred to the bill of complaint, and the reasons set forth that the primary act of 1919 was unconstitutional. The cause was heard on the demurrer.

"The three judges have decided that no good purpose can be served by going lengthily into the reasons for forming the opinions which have been reached and which I am shortly to make known.

"I will state at this time, however, that the decision was unanimous on the part of the three judges, and all of the conclusions which we have arrived at were strictly unanimous.

"We feel that under the holdings of the supreme court of Illinois in cases of a similar character, that the primary law of 1919 is invalid and unconstitutional. The bill of demurrer as amended is over-ruled."

State's Attorney Mark C. Keller in reply to a question from the court stated that in representing the defendants named in the suit, he would stand by the demurrer and indicated the filing of a prayer for appeal. The judges held that no bond was required and that the filing of a bill of exceptions would not be necessary.

It is expected that State's Attorney Keller will immediately perfect an appeal to the supreme court for the October term, with a view of securing a hearing before that body probably in December.

The action was started in the Lee county circuit court March 27 of this year when a bill was filed by Wm. J. McAlpine and George C. Dixon, attorney, attacking the validity of the Illinois primary law. The complainant in the case sought an injunction restraining County Treasurer Charles H. Eastman and County Clerk Fred G. Dimick from issuing or paying orders of clerks and judges, rentals of polling places and cost of printing ballots and supplies.

Hearing Last April.
The motion was argued April 17, when all three judges of the Fifteenth Judicial district, representing five northern Illinois counties, were on the bench here. The injunction was granted and the county officers instructed not to issue or pay any orders growing out of the April primary.

State's Attorney Mark C. Keller, representing the defendants, was granted time to file his reply to the original bill and copies of the arguments were sent to the three circuit judges of the district, who assembled in Judge Harry Edwards chambers this morning to consider their decision, which was handed down at 1:30 this afternoon.

Far Reaching Decision.
The decision is doubtless the most important of any case to come before the Lee county circuit court or the Fifteenth judicial district in history. It has been watched closely by county officers and lawyers of every county in Illinois, as the result announced this afternoon is construed to effect the entire state.

Another Pair Are Repulsed In Effort To Swim Channel

Cape Gris Nez, France, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The turbulent English Channel again has turned back two persons who aspired to swim it. They are Mme. Jane Sion, a French woman and Omer Perrault, a Canadian.

Starting from Gris Nez at 10:05 o'clock last night, they swam until 4 o'clock this morning when the heavy seas and rain squalls compelled them to abandon their attempt to get across.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wendel of Franklin Grove were shopping here today.

G. O. P. LEADERS IN FINE MEETING IN DIXON LAST NIGHT

Whiteside, Ogle and Lee County Committeemen Meet

About 150 members of the Republican County Central Committees of Whiteside, Ogle and Lee County, together with the Republican candidates for office at the November election, met at the Circuit Court room here last evening, and held a most enthusiastic meeting. G. J. Johnson, chairman of the Republican State Committee, and A. M. Smith, of Stockton, Ill., a member of the State Committee from this district, were present and outlined plans for the fall campaign. The County Chairman of the three counties discussed various features of the campaign, and reports from all portions of the three counties indicate a safe republican majority this fall.

This meeting is one of a series of meetings which have been held by Chairman Johnson throughout the state and he complimented the committeemen present for their work in the past and stated that the conditions throughout the state indicate a large republican vote from Frank L.
Smith for United States Senator as well as all of the other republican candidates.

Owing to business duties in Washington, Congressman Johnson was unable to be present, but he was represented by John H. Byers of this city, who spoke on his behalf.

State Game and Fish Commissioner
W. J. Stratton of Waukegan, Ill., and Mr. Garrison, First Assistant of the Department of Public Works and Buildings, were also present. The latter stated that within a few days all contracts would have been let for road construction provided for by the terms of the $50,000,000 bond act and that work would probably be started under the $100,000,000 bond issue some time soon.

Fifth: Democratic, Congressman A. C. Shallenberger.

Sixth: Democratic, T. C. Osborne, Bayard.

Congressman J. H. Morehead, democrat, was unopposed in the first district, as were Congressman Edgar Howard, democrat, 3rd district and Robert Simpson, republican, sixth district.

Boy Golfers Paired For Title Play at Edgewater Today

Chicago, Aug. 11. (AP)—Thirty-two young golfers, survivors of a field of more than 250, were paired in the first rounds of the championship matches in the western junior tournament at the Edgewater Golf Club today.

Art Tveraa, phenomenal 15 year old putting specialist from Minneapolis whose brilliant 73 netted medalist today, was matched in the first pair honors in the qualifying rounds yesterday on the tee off schedule with Gibson Dunlap, Chicago, who wrote his name in the championship flight with a 40-38-73 for 20th place. Thirteen aspirants from half a dozen middle western states and 18 Chicagoans, all of whom did 80 or better on the par 72 course yesterday were paired to follow the Tveraa-Dunlap match at 5 minute intervals.

Jack Lamphier, Springfield, Ill., who was in a three way tie at 74 with Lawrence Muller, Quincy, and Sam Gilbert, Chicago, faced a worthy opponent in Walter Kuz, Chicago, who was only 4 strokes behind him yesterday with 29-39, against 37-37.
Muller had as his opponent Raymond Koopman, another 78 qualifier from Chicago while Gilbert's fortunes were tied up with those of Robert Baldwin, who brought Bloomington, Ill., into the round with another 78.

Following the qualifier, 32 players who pulled through with scores between 80 and 83 were paired in first and second flight matches of 16 players each.

TORNADO IN WEST KILLS CHILD WHEN HOME IS WRECKED

Wind Storm Carries Destruction Along Narrow Path

Stirling, Colo., Aug. 11. (AP)—One child was killed and three other persons severely injured in a tornado which struck a mile east of Padri-ni, Colo., last night.

The child, Alvin Zulp, 4, was killed when the wind demolished a house in which two families had taken refuge. His mother brother and aunt were the injured.

After the building was reduced to splinters, the father crawled from the debris and carried the women and children to another house across the road. Returning, he secured the body of the child.

Skipping along a narrow path, the wind overturned several homes, wrecked automobiles and farm machinery, scattered hay stacks and damaged crops.

The home of A. J. Hubbard was lifted from the floor and members of the family were left sitting in the open.

Heavy hail and rain were reported in the wake of the wind from neighboring districts.

News About Women

SHE IS NOW DAME KENDAL

London—Mrs. Madge Kendal, who has been made a Dame of the British Empire and will hereafter be known as Dame Madge Kendal, was a favorite with theater goers in the United States during the late Eighties, when she toured there with her husband, W. H. Kendal, in "A Scrap of Paper," "Marriage" and many other plays with which she and her husband were identified in England.

Dame Madge Kendal was born of theatrical parents and first appeared on the British stage in 1854. In more than sixty years of acting she has played nearly every female part in Shakespeare and the other English classical plays, as well as countless modern roles. Mrs. Kendal made her last stage appearance fifteen years ago, but is still very active as a speaker and philanthropic worker.

QUEEN'S BIG RED CAR

Damascus—(AP)—Queen Marie of Rumania started something among the French officers of the garrison at Damascus when she sold that giant red automobile, in Paris last fall.

The Queen after an extended touring trip in France sold the car to the highest bidder. It proved to be the Ministry of War and in due course the auto was shipped to Damascus.

While waiting for his model car, the correspondent at headquarters here heard three telephone calls from officers desiring a car. "The big red car," exclaimed the garage keeper, "the big red car, they all want the big red car. They think because the Queen of Rumania has sat in this automobile, that it confers a certain touch of royalty upon them to use it now." The fenders and the body of the car showed many traces of well aimed bullets, proving that Queen Marie's former car had been under fire many times.

WOMEN GEOLOGISTS TOUR

Chicago—(AP)—A dozen girl graduates under the leadership of Dr. Margaret Fuller of the geology department of Northwestern University, are making a summer field trip to study the rock formations of Glacier National Park this summer. Scholastic credits will be given the girls who can make the required grades. The party plans to conclude its study of the park with an investigation of the Sperry Glacier. One man, husband of one of the students, accompanies the group.

EXERCISE, IS DANCER'S TIP

London—(AP)—Karsavina, the ballerina who heads the Diaghileff Russian Ballet which is having a long season in London, says strict diet is really not essential to keep a dancer in trim. The secret of perfect condition, in her opinion, is constant and vigorous exercise.

Karsavina and her associates rise at 7 A. M. and have two hours of vigorous exercise before they begin rehearsals.

"The secret of perfect physical condition is to stick faithfully to exercise," declared Karsavina. When one begins to exercise there must be no slacking, however old color or disinclined one may feel."

Out of this fund the widow of former King Charles is assured an allowance of $60,000 a year, which, with the income she derives from her private properties in Hungary, nets her about $100,000 a year.

Hungary as a State is forbidden to pay any government funds to the former Queen. Hence, the wealthier members of the old Hungarian nobility, like Count Apponyi and Count Andrássy, have helped her out of their own funds.

But in spite of the bitter opposition offered by Mrs. Evans and a group of her loyal supporters the Flintshire Liberals endorsed the Liberal land plan.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS—FOR THE FALL.

Add milk and soap jelly to starch and the mixture will remove mildew stains.

MAKES 'EM WHITE.

Put a teaspoonful of powdered borax to the water in which you rinse white clothes, and you will find them perceptibly whiter.

GIVES A GLOSS.

Rub linseed oil over the top of the gas stove to prevent rusting.

CANNING TRICK.

When pouring hot preserves or boiling fruit juice into a jar, always put a silver spoon into the jar before you pour in the hot liquid. This tempers the glass so it does not break.

SALT IS GOOD.

Salt is an exceedingly good cleaner for milk jugs and basins.

LOOK LIKE NEW.

Peach stains are obstinate, but they yield before this treatment. Apply powdered starch and leave for several hours until the mark has been absorbed. Then apply camphor.

SAVES THE SMELL.

The objectionable odor left by onions on peeling knives may be overcome if you rub them briskly with coarse salt.

WASH EASIER.

Always rinse the glasses that have held milk, in cold water before you put them in hot soap suds.

HELPS A LOT.

Glycerine is the perfect lubricant for the egg beater or meat chopper.

TRY THIS ONE.

A swinging shelf is very convenient in the kitchen or cellar and may be accommodated where a cupboard or table would be out of the question.

WON'T EAT HOLES.

When you go away for the summer, take the precaution to sprinkle borax under the carpets and thus keep away the moths.

The WOMAN'S DAY
By Allene Sumner

BY ALLENE SUMNER

Nice, Aug. 11—If you are a Mrs. Smith of Main street who keeps a window full of potted geraniums in the winter time, owns two or three spotted begonias, a calla lily which has three buds at once, and maybe a night blooming cereus which is the awe and admiration of your friends, come to the Riviera and the flower market!

Flower markets are as essential in all Europe, in fact, as the vegetable or meat market at home.

And the blooms one can buy for a penny!

In Paris the flower market glows its stuff in the shadow of the black old conciergerie where the dainty Marie Antoinette spent her dark dungeon days before her head was placed beneath the guillotine. That guillotine even today sways in a black corner of the old Gothic-arched pile, dark spots of royal blood upon it—and the pin-pricked letter is there, too, which Marie man- aged to write to a gallant who would help to save her!

But out in the sunlight again there is the flower market in contrast to the gloom of black history within the old hall.

The Parma violet which gallant swains of the story books ever bring their sweeties, nod here—the color and shape of violets, but the rich soft purple hugeness of pansies—there are huge armfuls of poppies, too, mingled with the blue bachelor button and wheat just as they are picked and brought in from the fields of Flanders and Normandy.

Roses and orchids and carnations, too, from a nickel a bunch to a huge 10 cents.

But the flower market of Nice is to the poor little markets of Paris what Ali Babba's cave is to yours, which holds only the canned fruit and the winter's coal—if you are a law-abiding citizen!

One has glimpsed these exotic freakish blooms on the mountain slopes and along the fields in the train and motor rides through the Riviera—fairy tale-like blooms, pastured meadows, one foamy billowing mass of shell-like pink, the cleaner trees.

Mountain slopes like molten sunlight with the bushes of yellow bloom—blossoms like orchids with a perfume which calls buzzing swarms of bees—the bloom from which that storied house of Plantagenet took its name.

Trees of purple and blue and orchid hydrangeas—groves of olive and mimosa and orange waxed white with bloom—

And as the flower market whittier we ride behind a doddering nag in a brightly polished equipage, all this opulent bloom is seen.

There are little corages of rain- wet orange blossoms, almost too sweet to bear, 3 francs, 9 cents. There are great armfuls of peach-colored roses for a nickel, and the very special rose grown in great groves all along the Riviera for the perfume makers at Grasse.

These acres of rose, and other acres of jasmine and valley lily are tended and tilled as carefully as our husbandmen till their more prosaic fields of potatoes or cabbage.

There is a new way, too, of beating Uncle Sam. Little rouge-like boxes full of the waxed essence—equal in strength to four ounces of the liquid—no tax, because only your perfume made—that perfume which, glorified by labels and names to conjure within the perfume world, scents us all at home. For all the perfumes are made in three or four of these great factories of Grasse; taken away to their respective buyers in great vats to be made a new and individual product by gay labels and perhaps a blending of certain basic odors by the retailer in question.

Jasmine is considered the finest of all the perfumes made. Great vats full of these creamy petals are placed in tubs of pure wax which draws the odor into the flower, leaving scentless, torn petals behind. This jasmine base, we learned, is the base of practically all good perfumes.

And great tubs of powered orris root told the real story of the violet scents.

We saw the flower farmers bring their morning pickings to the perfumery—two-wheeled carts drawn by lumbering oxen, strange with their cargo of dewey bloom.

One farmer brings in a flock of carts heaped to the very wagon seat with the creamy-pink rose grown specially for the perfumery—600 pounds, the fairy stuff weighs.

"We will get three ounces of rose essence from this," we are told.

Carts full, too, with the waxy magnolia blossom sometimes mixed with the jasmine blossoms for the wax process.

Of course, we buy. Draw near, sisters, because this perfume must be well hidden in a toe of my slipper when I return—all perfumes taxable at customs. Draw near and hold your rage. Fifty cents for a four-ounce bottle of the rarest perfume sold at home—

There is a new way, too, of beating Uncle Sam. Little rouge-like boxes full of the waxed essence—equal in strength to four ounces of the liquid—no tax, because only

"alcoholic perfumes shall be taxed." Whoopee!

Dinner-Dance Most Enjoyable Affair

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ralston entertained a company of forty friends last evening at the Dixon Country Club with a dinner-dance, in honor of Miss Doris Harvey, of Pasadena, Cal., niece of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Harvey.

The guests included younger folk for Miss Harvey and also a number of Mr. and Mrs. Ralston's friends and the evening proved one of the most delightful of the summer season.

The little club house had been transformed for the event, with flowers and foliage, and the addition of bric-a-brac, pretty lamps, rugs, etc. The dinner table was especially attractive. Graceful ferns formed a cool green panel down the center of the table, and a profusion of lovely salmon pink phlox, with many lighted tapers completed the effective decoration.

Some of the guests who did not care to dance enjoyed bridge after dinner.

Mrs. W. W. Gilbert won the favor for high score; Miss Franc Ingraham won the consolation favor.

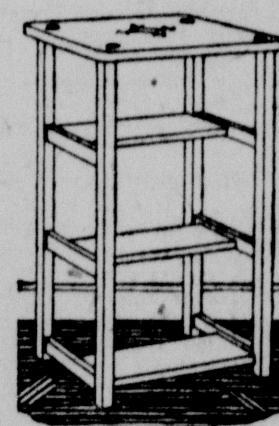

Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, everyone present spending an evening replete with pleasure in enjoying the gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Ralston.

Colonial Punch

EVEN the most casual callers should be offered some cooling refreshment on summer afternoons or evenings, and the wise woman keeps "the makings" always in her ice box, so that a pitcher of punch may be concocted at a moment's notice. Simple and delicious is this mixture:

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup lemon juice
- 1 cup cider
- 1 cup white grape juice
- Ice and water

Make a syrup by boiling sugar and half a cup of water five minutes, so there will be no undissolved sugar in the bottom of the pitcher. Cool, add fruit juices and cider, stir well and pour over ice in bowl or large pitcher. Add 2 quarts ice water.

LET'S KEEP THIS SACRED.

Big Jim Jeffries the same hearty Jeff of old, and pompous Tom Sharkey, sailor-man, on whose broad chest a majestic tattooed ship still rolls, have fought their fight again.

This time it was in a theater, in New York the other day, where they reenacted with patient mimicry the struggle they staged at Coney Island in 1899, in a day when youth was sweet to both of them.

Sharkey, the same unctuous, formal fellow, the flaring, blaring boy of the seas, the halest party you ever saw.

Jeffries, dignified, slim-waisted, fit as a fiddle, looking not a day older than he did under Reno's blazing sun in 1910, when he made the tragic discovery that within his magnificent shell the spark had died.

And as they labored through the ring, in the re-enactment of the battle that made old Coney Island ring 27 years ago, as they lunged, side-stepped, pranced, jabbed and puffed a great deal with it all, a clown, in an effeminate burlesque of a ring costume leaped into the arena from time to time to dance around the gladiators and to be back-slapped by Sharkey's great paw.

We cannot reconcile the two, the mincing clown and these hairy-chested ring-men of an old and gory day. We must side with the crowd whose offended tastes demanded that the clown be removed.

It must have hurt the two old boys rather deeply to have to put up with a slapstick when they were re-enacting what had meant so much to them back in '99. The bout must awaken memories in their breasts that are too sacred to be made fun of. We have kept a place in our heart for the fighters that were, the fighters who seemed so different from the fighters of today, and we don't want any of this clown business.

Let us keep sacred at least this memory of the grim-faced Jeffries and the chesty Sharkey, fighting men of old who really fought!

ROBERT TODD LINCOLN.

Robert T. Lincoln, who died last week, was unknown to this generation, so completely had he effaced himself in a manner premeditated. He was an able man who achieved success in the business world, but he felt himself so inferior to his father that ever he was fearful of reflection upon the great name of Lincoln. He would not use his heritage for material advancement.

He was close to official life and he was recognized for his own ability, so he was drawn into appointive office before he sought a place in affairs where he might be less conspicuous, yet might live a useful life. While his father was living and before the war ended, he was given a place on the staff of General Grant with rank of captain. President Garfield appointed him secretary of war. He served as ambassador to England. Withdrawing from public life, he became attorney for the Pullman company and then was advanced to the presidency. While so associated in Chicago business life his wish was given fullest consideration by Chicago newspapers and his name rarely appeared therein. Because of that he was hardly known to this generation. Within the last year he had been given greater publicity than at any time in forty years. On occasions his portrait appeared in rotogravure sections of metropolitan newspapers. He was brought forth as a page from history and was revealed to people of today.

It may not always be best for sons of great men to live in such obscurity, but his example is one that is beneficial.

WHEAT SWAMPS RAILROADS.

In twenty-one days the Rock Island railroad loaded 14,350 cars of small grain, mostly wheat, in the southwest. All available cars of the Rock Island, the Santa Fe, the Missouri Pacific and the Southern Pacific and less important lines have been put into the grain traffic, and still Kansas and Oklahoma railroads are swamped in their endeavor to transport to market the products of the field of these states. Loadings of the Rock Island above referred to are comparable to 6294 cars a year or an increase of 127 percent. The Santa Fe has loaded 40,000 cars since the movement of grain this season. It is reported to be doing the largest business in its history. Car shortages have not been frequent in recent years, the railroads having put their equipment in excellent conditions since the war.

The scene of wheat harvesting has moved to Nebraska. The South Dakota crop is reported much below that of other years. The Canadian crop of spring wheat still is uncertain, depending upon weather conditions.

If the south keeps on selling home sites to northern republicans, what's going to become of the democratic party?

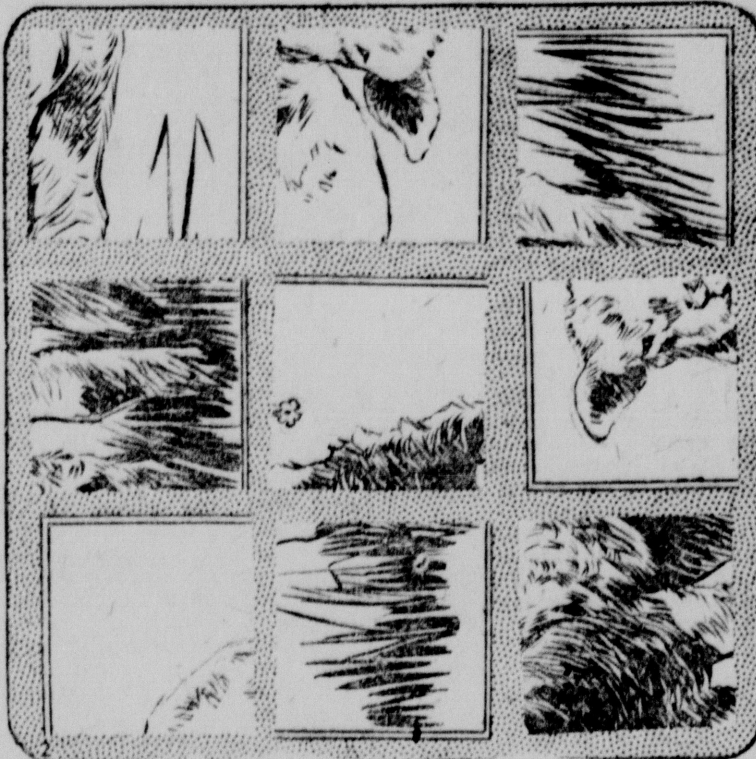

If the senatorial investigations were for the purpose of deciding the worth of the primary election law, it would be worth while. It only is to determine whether or not certain men are to be considered worthy to sit with certain other men in the United States senate.

Red Grange has to cut a little ice in the summer in order to cut a lot of ice in the fall.

Her Own Way.

A STORY OF A GIRL OF TODAY

JOAN EXPLAINS

Jerry was instantly all sympathy when he heard Joan speak of her brother.

"We must certainly bring him out of his morbid temperament," he said. "Surely, Mr. Robinson might have done something."

"That is the one thing," said Joan "that I have always held against Dad. He pays no attention whatever to John. I think he has not seen him since my mother died. Consequently he doesn't know what a wonderful chap he is physically even with his shorter leg and crippled arm."

The rest of his body has been trained until he has the broad shoulders and slender waist of a prizefighter. He has had some wonderful contraptions made by which he can walk without showing his limp. And he can ride a horse like a cowboy and operate a specially made motor perfectly.

"Yet he will go nowhere. He seems to think that his infirmities make him a being apart."

"Much of this is due to my mother who would have counteracted it if she had lived. But you see she died when he was three years old and naturally he had been backward up to that time. Right after her death he was sent to the camp and from then on he has grown into one of the finest young men that I have ever known."

"He is studying anthropology and is going to South Africa immediately after this will business is settled, for he of course comes into his share of the estate at the same time that I do."

"Do not think, Judy," said Joan turning to me, "that I have been selfish with my brother. Many times I have offered to stay with him up there. But his tutors told me that "They said the floor looked beautiful... but they could hardly believe I had finished it with DUCO while the cake was baking."

DUCO removes all difficulties from home decorating. For it dries so quickly, spreads so easily and does not show brush marks.

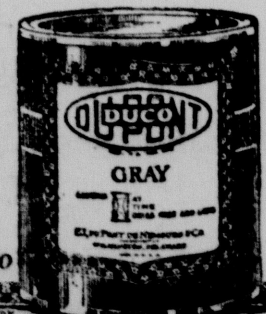

Easier to apply... every job a satisfactory job... and the jewel-like surface is unusually resistant to wear and abrasion.

Use DUCO for all woodwork, furniture, autos, floors, walls and metalwork. Furnished in sixteen permanent colors and black and white.

DUCO represents the greatest achievement ever made in the production of finishes for handy home uses. We carry it in all popular colors.

he did not seem himself even with me, and I know he loves me better than anyone on earth. Ever since I have been able to reason I have tried to make John come out into the world and live with me. His isolation has been a constant grief to me.

"Some years ago when he was 11, however, a man came up to camp direct from Yale where he had been offered a position as professor of anthropology. This man came up to spend his vacation with one of John's teachers, who was his brother. He and my brother immediately struck up a great friendship. He has stayed right there in camp ever since, and it has been a dream of my brother that as soon as he came into his fortune he was going to finance an expedition into Africa. There, far from civilization, I hope he will shed his sensitive obsession about his lameness. He has made all preparations for this; so you see, Mr. Hathaway, much is hanging on the speedy settlement of our property."

Heir To Fortune To Donate Fine Church

Kewanee, Ill., Aug. 10—(AP)—A magnificent church building costing approximately $250,000 will be the gift of John Cooper, Kewanee, Iron worker and heir to an estate valued at $5,000,000 in Virginia, he announced from the pulpit of the Christian church of Kewanee yesterday. A pipe organ with an endowment sufficient to provide for an organist will be the gift of Mrs. Cooper. Cooper who came to Kewanee in his teens and united with the church met his wife, formerly Miss Opal McCready, also a member at the church. He will come into possession of his vast estate on Sept. 18, his 33rd birthday and will move to Virginia. The Coopers have four children. Plans for the church include an auditorium with seating capacity of 1,200, a roof garden over the Sunday school portion of the building for socials, a tower equipped with chimes and a gym.

DODGE BROTHERS
DE LUXE SEDAN

People select motor cars by different standards.

Some desire luxury and ostentation. Others, utility and economy alone.

Dodge Brothers De Luxe Sedan strikes a fine and distinguished balance—both in appearance and price—between these two extremes.

It provides unusual comfort and roominess; a refinement of line and design in which the owner takes deep pride; and everywhere in the world the name it bears is associated with the highest standard of integrity and workmanship.

With reasonable care, the De Luxe Sedan serves its owners for years, frequently delivers mileage running well into six figures, and on the resale market brings prices that strikingly reflect the solid value Dodge Brothers have built into it.

THINK YANKS HAVE ANOTHER PENNANT PUT AWAY ON ICE

Western Trip Was Crucial Test And Netted Safe Margin

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Fifteen games in the west, widely regarded as a crucial test, have left the New York Yankees well ahead of the field in the American League.
Ten victories against five defeats, .667 baseball, where .500 undoubtedly is the Huggins record for the invasion and only one more foreign tour stands between the present leaders and another league pennant.

Where a month ago Cleveland had to play .667 ball to tie the Yanks playing .500 the westerners' percentage for the remainder of the season would be .750. In other words if the Yanks win 22 and lose the same number the Indians must register 30 conquests against 11 losses to tie.

Yesterday Detroit took another shot at the leaders and won an abbreviated game 5-3 with a three run rally. Cobb, batting for O'Rourke in the 7th singled home the winning score. The game was called at the end of the inning to permit the Yanks to catch a train for Washington.

Meanwhile Cleveland fell before the excellent pitching of Ruthier of Washington 4-1, the veteran left hander granting only six hits.
Ken Williams' 15th homer of the year gave St. Louis a victory over the Red Sox 6-4.

The Athletics downed the White Sox four to three after 11 innings. Moorehart's fumble of Grabowski's throw in the final frame to catch Hale stealing was followed by a Cochrane single which settled the issue.

A shifted infield failed to hamper the New York Giants in the National League and today they are secure in fourth position as a result of their victory over the Chicago Cubs, 2-0. Freddie Lindstrom, third baseman has been called to Chicago by the death of his father and Frank Frisch is at third base. Frisch's home run in the sixth yesterday won the game.
Brooklyn succumbed to the Pirates 10-2 for the ninth straight defeat for the Dodgers.

Boston bowed to the St. Louis Cardinals 3-1 when four straight hits in the ninth accounted for two runs. Philadelphia topped Cincinnati 10-3 by counting 17 hits off Donohue, Luque and Lucas.

SIDELIGHTS

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Russel Wrightstone led the attack of the Phillies against the Reds with 4 hits.

Tommy Thevenow, the Cardinals crack shortstop turned in a whale of a game behind Pitcher Rhem. He had eight assists and three putouts without a slip and came to Charley's aid several times. His defense play was the feature of the game.

"Rube" Herman, slugging first baseman and outfielder for the Robins had his second consecutive day at bat with perfect average, clouting out four of the 8 hits which Meadows allowed.

Bill Hunnefeld of the Chicago White Sox who has been hitting in hard luck the last few days suddenly got back into a batting stride and cracked out 3 hits, one of which was a double.

Youthful Tennis Players Matched Up Again Today

Chicago, Aug. 11—(AP)—

Youthful title aspirants from the four corners of the nation who survived yesterday's play were matched today in the 4th round of singles in the national junior and boys tennis championships.

Most of the seeded players remained in the battle on the turf courts of the South side tennis club but there were gaps in the ranks of the favorites as a result of the turbulent third.

The chief reversal was the defeat of H. L. Johnson of Waban, Mass., 3rd ranking junior last year, who succumbed before the powerful ground stroking of Howard Langlie of Seattle, Washington.

Another upset of Tuesday was the defeat of Harry Moore, White Plains, N. Y., seeded third in the boys division. He lost to Nick Lukats of Gary, Ind.

While the ranking players generally were finding rough going in the singles matches, the seeded doubles teams disposed of opponents with comparative ease in the opening of the doubles play in both divisions.

Chemicals May Replace Flowers for Perfumes

New York, Aug. 11—(AP)—The chemist's laboratory has duplicated nature successfully, this time in the realm of scents, and the chemical formulae of odors much different than those usually associated with chemistry will be told the Golden Jubilee meeting of the American Chemistry Society meeting here September 6.

Research in perfumes head an imposing array of subjects which will include efforts to prolong life by the biological chemist, work in the dye industry, rubber production, petroleum research and hundreds of other fields.

The largest number of foreign chemists ever to visit America will be included in the three or four thousand attendants at the convention, among them being some of Europe's foremost research authorities.

Army Plan Converts Bad Men Into Good Citizens

Washington, Aug. 11—(AP)—Army chiefs believe they have found out how to make bad men into honest law abiding citizens.

At least they are gratified over the results of their experiments with prisoners in the Leavenworth disciplinary barracks and have decided, for that reason, to extend their reform work to other institutions of the kind, including those at Fort Jay, N. Y., and Alcatraz, California.

The reform movement in Leavenworth was started by Col. G. O. Cress, commandant, with a small group of prisoners. These were given a course of studies in character building consisting of physical drills to encourage manly carriage, instructions regarding the importance of personal cleanliness and appearance in public, and class work in expression and clear thinking.

A report on the experiment given Secretary Davis of the War Department by the Adjutant General shows that the results already obtained surpass expectations.

The character training is given in addition to the craft and vocational courses which aim to provide the prisoners with useful trades in civil life.

Hagen Enters Western To Recoup His Standing

Indianapolis, Aug. 10—(AP)—Walter Hagen will play in the Western Open golf championship here Aug. 26-28. He told the local committee that he looked upon the Western Open as the next best opportunity to retain his high position.

"Other prominent golfers—Jim Barnes, Gene Sarazen, Bill Melhorn, Johnny Farrell, Jack Hutchinson and Bob MacDonald—will participate, as well as some of the best amateurs in the west and middle west."

The event will be for seventy-two holes, eighteen to be played on the first day and a similar number on the second. The sixty lowest scorers will be eligible for the final day, when two rounds will be played.

The Highland Golf and Country Club stage the tournament.

HAWAIIAN PINEAPPLE PACK

Honolulu, Aug. 10—(AP)—The 1926 Hawaiian pineapple pack will have a value between $34,000,000 and $35,000,000. This figure has been taken as basis for fixing the 1926 opening prices. Last year's pack was valued at $35,000,000.

Turkish Baths Grow in Popular Esteem

New York, Aug. 10—(AP)—The Turkish bath to a certain extent has replaced the cocktail as refreshment after a busy day, if the increased numbers of these establishments here is a criterion. Swimming is a close second.

Turkish, Russian and other vapor baths have increased in popularity until at least one hotel includes them with the room, and others are equipped for this service.

That these new facilities have not endangered the general business is evidenced by the new and larger building erected on Forty-second street by the largest Turkish baths in the city.

Large numbers of women patronize the places, special hours being reserved for them in the daytime. The evenings and nights are reserved universally for men.

WHIPPET RACES POPULAR

St. Louis, Aug. 11—(AP)—Probably no form of sport in this section of the country at the present time is meeting with a more enthusiastic reception than that of whippet racing.

Run over a tanbark track at a large open air stadium here, the races are attracting upwards of 10,000 fans nightly. The certificate system of betting is used, and large sums of money change hands on each event.

The best dog flesh of the world is represented in the competing kennels.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

It is no longer necessary to drain crankcase oil every 500 miles. Four changes of oil a year are enough, when you own a 1927 Buick.

The crankcase in the 1927 Buick is vacuum cleaned! A vital new improvement—the Vacuum Ventilator—draws all crankcase vapors out into the open before they have an opportunity to do harm.

Now, all that is necessary is to add oil occasionally, and then change it 4 times a year, simply as a supercaution.

Women Who 'Tend Home Fires Want 'Quick Fire Coke'

It is a Clean Fuel

"QUICK FIRE COKE" is lighter and cleaner to handle, fewer firings of furnace, less ashes to carry out than with soft coal.

We urge "QUICK FIRE COKE" for all types of furnaces and heating plants in homes, hotels, or office buildings, because of its steady, easily regulated heat, uniform high quality, absolute freedom from dust and dirt, and greater heating value ton for ton than hard or soft coal.

Do not merely say "coke" when ordering. If you wish to be sure of having the highest quality of by-product coke it is possible to make, you should insist upon "QUICK FIRE COKE".

"QUICK FIRE COKE" is more than a trade mark. It is a guarantee of quality, efficiency, and service—a superior fuel that does not deteriorate, nor lose any of its heating value whether stored for long periods in bins or exposed to the weather.

Women who "keep the home-fires burning" will never go back to the use of soft coal, if they burn "QUICK FIRE COKE" through one winter. With "QUICK FIRE COKE", the curtains, draperies, rugs and wall paper will be cleaner at the end of winter than they are with the first few weeks of burning soft coal. Any woman who burns or has burned soft coal knows how damaging it is and what a lot of extra work it makes in scrubbing, dusting, and cleaning from the constant "tracking" of coal dust and ashes from the furnace room over the house. There is no smoke, nor soot, in burning this coke and it is practically free from dust and ashes. The Indiana Coke & Gas Company, Terre Haute, makers of "QUICK FIRE COKE" send an interesting booklet "HOW TO BURN COKE" to any householder on request. Write for it today and learn how you may reduce your coal bills and eliminate smoke and soot damage to your house-furnishings and interior decorations.

"QUICK FIRE COKE" is sold and recommended by

DON JUAN
 Novel by INEZ SABASTIAN
 Copyright, 1926, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.
 "Don Juan," screen play by Bess Meredith, starring John Barrymore, is a Warner Bros. picturization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS
 Don Juan's disillusioned father warns him: "Destroy women or they will destroy you. Take their love scornfully—and forget!" This advice has made Don Juan the greatest lover of all time. Infamous Lucretia Borgia, greatest power in Rome, invites him to her reception. Also present is exquisite Adriana Varnese, coveted by Borgia's cousin, Donati. The Borgia prepare to poison Adriana's father, so that the girl will be left alone at their mercy. Juan's interest is caught by Adriana. Lucretia warns him Donati is a deadly swordsman. Juan and Donati meet tensely.

CHAPTER IV (Continued)
 His glance and Juan's were like rapiers clashing against each other. "You Spaniards make pretty speeches, but they have no point," Donati said finally, and his eyes swept Juan from heel to head, contemptuously noting Juan's slenderness. Juan stood smiling mockingly, and at last Donati moved away, with a little laugh and a shrug of his shoulders so insulting that he half expected Juan to challenge him to a duel as a result. Juan, however, had no mind for anything of the sort at that particular moment. To fight with Donati would have taken time which he wished to devote to furthering his acquaintance with Adriana.

He made his way to the great ballroom, where Adriana was standing with her father. She could not help feeling worried about him,

"Let your lips perfume the wine," he begged, fearful that here in the house of their enemies something horrible might happen to him. Having found him, her thoughts strayed back to Juan.

And Juan, making his way through the throng of guests, tried his hardest to reach her. Women blocked his way. He could have pushed past the men, but their wives and sisters and sweethearts—yes, even mothers, had heard of Don Juan, and those who had not already met him were determined not to lose this opportunity.

Lucretia noted the way in which he detained him and smiled. He came well recommended, this prospective lover of hers. The women of Rome, of all Italy, had had to bow to her in other things; now they would bow in this little matter also. Lucretia Borgia and the famous Don Juan—they would be well suited to each other.

She turned to the servant who paused before her with a tray on which were three glasses of wine, delicately wrought goblets of Venetian glass, exquisite as rainbows. Other servants were making their way through the crowd similarly laden. Lucretia stretched out one slim, white arm with its burden of jewels and took the nearest glass. Her brother, standing beside her, took the farthest one.

And in his hand as it passed over the glass between him and it was the tiny phial given him a few moments before by Nerl, the sorcerer. There was the slightest break in his movement, the slightest hesitation, as his hand passed over that third goblet. When his hand moved again the contents of the glass had been increased by three tiny drops of colorless liquid.

For an instant the serving man's gaze met his. Then Cesare passed around a group of people to the side of the Duke Della Varanese. And Lucretia, talking idly with the courtiers who pressed about her, watched him and Varanese with the eyes of a cat about to pounce on her prey.

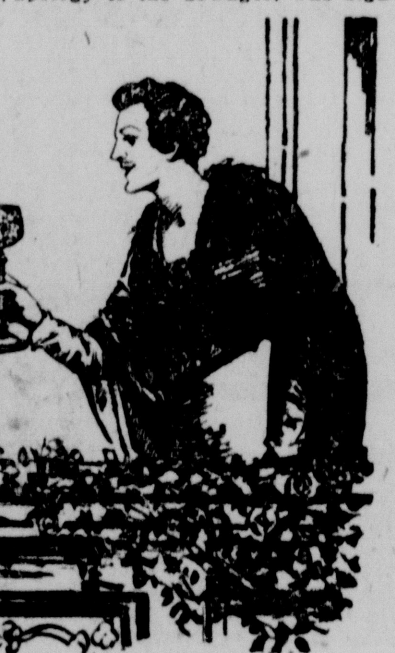

There was another who watched, keen eyed. Juan, though apparently devoting himself to a fat, bejeweled dowager, had taken in the little scene. Trained as he had been, he had missed no detail. He had not actually seen the poison trickle into the goblet of wine, but he knew what it meant when Cesare Borgia's hand hesitated over wine meant for another. And when Cesare, apparently distressed that Varanese had not been served, made to offer the guest his own glass, and then, apologizing because he himself had sipped it, beckoned to the serving man who hovered near. Juan, apparently still interested only in the dowager, reached out one hand and took the third glass of wine from the servant's tray.

Schooled though he was to show no feeling, Cesare frowned, and Adriana, seeing that he did, looked up at her father, bewildered. Surely all was not well here. Her fears swarmed about her again. Juan, pausing in his talk, seemed about to sip the poisoned wine. Then, with the glass half way to his lips, he lowered it again. From the corner of his eye he saw Lucretia's expression. She, too, had dropped her mask for an instant, as had her brother. Consternation swept over her face, but almost instantly was gone as she saw that Juan had noted it. She turned away, but not so far that she could not still observe him.

Again Juan seemed about to drink the wine, and again, apparently reminded of an amusing story, he lowered the glass and bent forward to whisper in the ear of the lewd old woman with whom he talked. With every appearance of being elaborately casual, Lucretia made her way to his side. And as for a third time he raised the glass she laid her hand on his arm.

Exquisitely polite, he turned to her. Meaningly she met his eyes and moved away to the balcony on which the ballroom's long windows opened. Juan made a bow of deep apology to the dowager, who sighed mournfully as he left her to follow Lucretia. Those nearby smiled and shrugged their shoulders. One or two commented on Lucretia's new choice of a lover.

And Adriana, hearing them and seeing what had happened, wondered at the little gain that stashed at her heart. This man had interested her—and, after all, he was only another of Lucretia Borgia's favorites!

Cesare, watching also, wondered a little. Certain that Juan had known perfectly what he was doing in taking the goblet of poisoned wine, he could not be quite so certain of the young Spaniard's motive in so doing. And for Cesare Borgia not to be quite sure of the motive behind another's actions was a new experience, and not a welcome one. Mentally he chalked up a score against this young upstart.

Juan, joining Lucretia on the moonlit balcony, looked down at her for an instant, and to her it seemed that the music that floated to them from the ballroom, and the white moonlight and the scent of flowers from the garden below, all were blended into the delight that she knew when she gazed up into his heavy lidded eyes. Then she knew stark horror as he lifted the glass of wine in a toast.

"To your devastating charm!" he murmured, and was about to drink, she thought, when suddenly he held out the glass to her. "Let your lips perfume the wine," he begged.

She knew then that he understood what had happened, and both hated and admired him for it. Her thoughts moved as swiftly as a coiled snake that suddenly strikes, but her movement was languid as she lifted one hand and pushed the glass away.

"We Borgias do not share with another," she told him, and his sardonic smile acknowledged her skill. "My pride gains strength from yours, sweet teacher," he replied, and, turning, emptied the wine over a rose bush that climbed the trellis work of the balcony.

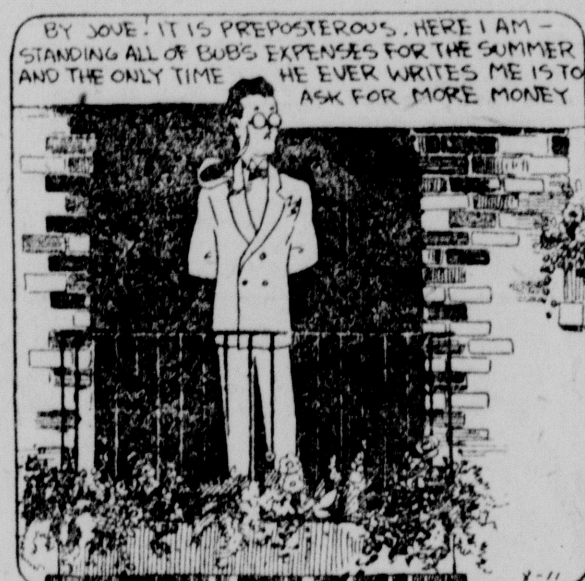

The rose bush was covered with white blossoms. One, on which the wine fell, shriveled and crumpled before their eyes. And Juan, leaning forward, plucked it and, still smiling, held it out to her. "The rose is ricker by a great experience," he said, and mockery of her and laughter at her failure ran through his voice.

PLAN COMPLETE AIR SERVICE IN THE NORTHWEST

Airplane Taxi, Freight and Passenger Service Proposed

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 10.—(AP)—A new era in aviation with establishment of municipal airports and an airplane taxi, freight and passenger service in the principal cities, faced the northwest today as a result of the Ford Reliability airplane tour. Decision to proceed along these lines was reached at a conference here last night.

Today, the 22 contestants in the Ford Air Tour, which started at Detroit last Saturday, turned up their engines and made short flights from the St. Paul Municipal Air Port preparatory to hopping off tomorrow for Des Moines.

Walter Beech, flying a Travel Air, was announced as the unofficial winner of the Milwaukee-St. Paul leg of the tour. He made the 291 miles yesterday in two hours 7 minutes or an average of 137.4 miles an hour.

Several of the pilots were forced down at small Wisconsin towns but no serious mishaps were reported.

CURTIS PLANE FASTEST Chicago, Aug. 10.—(AP)—A big Curtiss plane developed 155.6 miles an hour, the greatest speed on the first two legs of the second annual continental airplane reliability tour, but a Verville, plane number 1, led all competitors with the highest score for both the Kalamazoo-Chicago and Chicago-Milwaukee hops.

The Chicago Association of Commerce announced today that the Verville had scored 266 points and made 110 miles an hour for the 128 miles from Kalamazoo to Chicago and 288.1 points and 119.2 miles an hour for the ninety miles from Chicago to Milwaukee. A Travel Air number 2 was second on both legs with scores of 241.8 and 272.5 and speed of 112.5 and 119 miles an hour.

The Curtiss made its highest speed of 155.6 miles an hour on the 128 mile Kalamazoo-Chicago leg.

The big Ford triple motored all metal plane traveled the 127 mile leg at 94.5 miles and the 90 mile hop at 90.1 miles an hour.

The Little Driggs-Dart along in the light plane class, did the 127 miles at the rate of 75.3 miles an hour and the 90 miles at a speed of 79.7 miles an hour.

"INDIAN DAYS" AT SCOUT CAMP HELD INTEREST OF BOYS

Blackhawk Area Scouts Are Having Marvelous Outing

Saturday and Sunday were Indian days in the Boy Scout camp near Franklin Grove and many of the boys won merits in the contests which were held. Saturday night, camp games were played. Sunday afternoon the Indian Treasure hunt was held. John King was first and won an Indian eagle claw necklace; Clark Duffy was second and was awarded an Indian tomahawk; Glendon Sharp was third, winning an eagle feather.

At night the Indian dances were given at the camp fire by Don Cameron, Chief Little Feather, "Bus" Smith as Standing Cow, and "Chan" Sterling as Chief Rain-in-the-face. The dances were exceedingly good and were applauded vigorously.

Chief Little Feather gave the prizes for the treasure hunt. Two Indian songs were sung by Little Feather. There were not very many visitors present on account of the rain, but those who were present said that the dances were very picturesque and natural.

Boys Enjoy Games. Saturday afternoon a baseball game was held. Henry Roemers and Clark Duffy chose up the Duffy side winning by a score of 9 to 2.

The first camp game that we tried was the capture of the flag. The camp was chosen in two sides. One flag was placed on one side of the creek, the other on the other side. Captains were elected for each side. The game was held the best two out of three. Captain Duffy's side defeated Captain Sterling's side.

Church was held in camp, the boys all declaring that Chan Sterling was the best preacher because he dismissed them.

Bus Smith scraped the bottom of the swimming pool and is now directing the other Scouts where to dive. Light and Woodie Thompson gave a solo at the camp fire.

Prizes were given out at the camp fire for those who had placed in the treasure hunt.

Red Vearth's police dog paid the camp a visit Sunday and all of the Scouts declared that he should become a permanent member of the baseball team.

Fred Harris, the Rochelle sheik, woke up Monday morning and found that he had become the camp baby over night.

TAKE BOYS TO CAMP All Boy Scouts who are to attend the second period of camp, are requested to meet at the Episcopal church Wednesday morning at 9:30, and cars will pick them up to convey them to the camp at Franklin Creek. All parents with cars, will likely take their sons to the camp, and these Scouts may invite chums to ride with them. Also parents of boys now at camp, who intend to drive out for their boys are asked to stop at the church and take some of the boys going for the second period, thus helping them, without inconvenience to themselves. Anyone wishing to donate cars tomorrow morning may do at the church at 9:30 o'clock ready for a trip to the camp.

The VANITY CASE

by CAROLYN WELLS

©1926 by G. P. PUTNAM SONS

BEGIN HERE TODAY

MRS. PRENTISS, who suffers from insomnia, sees lights mysteriously appear and disappear in the HEATH household next door one night, and the next morning HARBOR GARDENS, Long Island, is agog with the murder of EMILIA HEATH and the disappearance of PERRY, her husband.

House guests of the Heaths are LAWRENCE INMAN and BUNNY MOORE. Inman might have a motive because he is heir to Myra's considerable fortune, she having cut off her husband in her will. Suspicion also points to golden-haired, vivacious Bunny Moore, because of her refusal to answer questions at the inquest.

Myra Heath was a peculiar woman. She never used cosmetics, never wore colors. She had a mania for collecting glass, and it was a rare old whisky bottle that was the instrument of her death. Candies were burning at her head and feet when a maid discovered her body, and nearby was a card marked "The Work of Perry Heath." Stranger of all, she was heavily made up and dressed with gay colors.

The strangest thing about Heath's disappearance is the fact that all the windows and doors had been locked on the inside the night before and were found that way in the morning. Fingerprint prints of Inman and Inman are found on the bottle. A vanity case has strangely disappeared and physicians determine that the rouge was applied to Myra's face after death.

At the Country Club, the murder is discussed by SAM ANDERSON, Heath's rival for the club presidency; AL CUNNINGHAM, who is trying to solve the case, and others. Some believe Heath the murderer. Others, including Anderson, disagree. Cunningham, believing Bunny Moore is concealing something, calls on Mrs. Prentiss, who tells him of the mysterious lights. TOD HUNTER BUCK, Mrs. Prentiss's nephew, suggests that Perry Heath also may have been murdered.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XVII THAT evening Larry Inman and Bunny dined alone.

It was an ordeal, but they had agreed that it was wise for them to keep up the ordinary routine of the house as far as possible, and be ready at any moment for the return of Perry Heath.

As a matter of course, and also because there was need for a master, Inman assumed the head of the house, while Bunny naturally filled Myra's place in affairs of domestic detail.

"We have to face the situation," he said, gravely, "and we may as well do the best we can to keep—"

"Keep the home fires burning," Bunny said, with an effort to speak lightly.

"Yes," he responded, "against Perry's return."

"Where is he, Larry?" Bunny said, for Herrick was momentarily out of the room.

"I don't know, Bunny. Inman said, but he did not look at her. "It is very hard to know what to do. Unless he comes home soon, I shall have to look after some of his business matters for him. A note of his"

"I don't think so. It seems a corner's verdict is far from final in the minds of the police. They don't seem inclined to make a move, though, or let anybody else make one, until Perry comes home."

"Are they doing anything to find him?"

"Yes,—in a stupid, battling way. They telephoned to the dealer who often sells his pictures, and the man said he hadn't seen Perry for two or three weeks. A fat lot of good such hunting does!"

"What do you think they ought to do?"

The little flower face looked up at him wistfully, as if he were the only hope or reliance.

As indeed he was. Poor little Bunny had never before known a trouble or care greater than the misfit of a new gown, or the tragedy of an unbecoming hat. And now, plunged suddenly into a sorrow so grave and terrible, and with no hope of rescue or relief, her dazed brain and stunned heart could scarcely meet the issues.

Yet she was learning. Already she was beginning to see that she must rely on herself for decisions and actions.

Her thoughts flew to the rather nice woman who had that morning offered to

The Key to Success

Success depends primarily on a healthy liver and stomach. You can not think straight if these organs are not working properly. MAY'S is usually successful in such cases. Our advice to everyone troubled in this way, especially when accompanied with bloating in the stomach, is to try this remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. At all druggists.—Adv.
